DAOW! – tall tales and songs from Maine's woods and waters.

"Here is powerful description and adventure, whimsy an inch thick, and a foggy aura of mystery and ancient sealore. Together they make for an engrossing experience."

—John Stansfield, reviewer for the National Storytelling Journal

"All in all, the incredible scope of Gillman's talents—the love of nature and Mount Desert Island that permeates his routines, and the warmth of his relationship with the audience—make an event with Jackson well worthwhile."

—Bar Harbor Times
